SCORING BIG IN BRIMFIELD

If there already is not enough for sale at Brimfield, the May 2006 show is featuring what could be the ultimate collector's treasure. Signed copies of Brimfield Rush: The Thrill of Collecting and the Hunt for the Big Score (Commonwealth Editions, May 2006) and author Bob Wyss will be available from Tuesday through Sunday at the Brimfield Exchange Information building across from May's Antique Market on Route 20 in Brimfield. The book is discounted during the week of the May show.

Wyss has written a fascinating, nonfiction, behind-the-scenes account of a young couple's odyssey. Through one year of Brimfield markets they deal in American paintings and search for the one canvas that, when sold at auction, will turn their fortunes. Along the way Wyss describes the 40-year history of Brimfield, meets memorable characters and collectors of antiques, ephemera and junk, and explores our modern-day fascination with collecting, from Brimfield to eBay.

Some readers may remember, or want to forget, one of the few great epic parties held more than 20 years ago when Gordon "Punchy" Reid Jr. was about to leave Brimfield and take the legendary market to Duanesburg, New York. The bonfire, the music, the revelry and the crowd was so huge that police did not know how to break it up. When the firewood ran out, some partygoers began tossing in antiques as

“This dazzling account of today’s collectors and the antiques trade is riveting.”

—Wendell Garrett, Editor-at-Large,
The Magazine ANTIQUES

Bob Wyss's fascinating, true account of one couple's hunt for their big score at Brimfield is must reading in 2006. If you're a Brimfield regular, you probably know most of the characters in this book. If you're new to Brimfield, you're in for a great read.

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE!

You have just arrived in Brimfield and face a sea of dealers and merchandise. You are searching for Furniture and Sterling Silver. Begin your search by:

- 1. CATEGORIES: Begin your search by browsing the general category list on page 19. Choose a category and look for the heading listed alphabetically in this guide.
- 2. DEALERS: are listed alphabetically under each category heading. Each dealer listing contains three columns of information. You will find the dealer's name, the name of the show (abbreviated) where they display, and their booth number.

Sample:

DEALER	SHOW	BOOTH
Furniture
Tim's Antiques	Mays	800
Sterling & Silver Plate
Slim's Silver	Quaker	1000

3. FINDING A DEALER: After finding a dealer in your chosen category, refer to the color show map on pages 12 & 13 for show's location. The show schedule on page 2 is helpful as different shows open on different days and times.

4. OTHER HELPFUL TIPS: When you arrive at a particular show and still cannot find the dealer or merchandise you are looking for, try asking the show promoter or a fellow dealer. They can be very helpful. Remember that you can do a more detailed category search on BrimfieldExchange.com from the comfort of your home.

General Information: During Brimfield week BrimfieldExchange operates an information building located across from May's Antique Market on Route 20, and provides internet access, maps and complimentary trade publications.

fuel. "It was one big rip-snorting take-the-dragon party," recalled one celebrant.

Other readers will recognize descriptions of the "rush" or stam-pede that happens as each field opens. One story tells of the television cameraman who wanted to capture the magic of the rush at Mays. He secured a very tall stepladder inside the gate. Somebody suggested this might not be very wise. Sure enough, when 9 a.m. came, the crowd bowled right over the ladder, sending camera and cameraman down. No one was seriously injured.

All readers will identify with the challenge faced by the young art dealers, Rachel McKay and Joe Laskowski of Collegetown, Pennsylvania, who live on a financial tightrope as they try and build their career as art dealers. At one point Rachel has a toothache and her choices are simple – sell a painting to raise the $2,000 for a root canal or have it yanked for $200. The book is also a love story. It begins with the couple still getting to know each other and the epilogue describes their wedding ceremony. Rachel and Joe Laskowski are now expecting their first child.

The author, Bob Wyss, is a journalism professor at the University of Connecticut. He was a writer and editor at the Providence Journal for 28 years, covering the environment, energy and business issues. He has written for such publications as the New York Times, Christian Science Monitor, Boston Globe, Yankee and Rhode Island Monthly.

Brimfield Rush has already earned praise from those in the antiques business. Sam Pennington, publisher of Maine Antique Digest, said: "What a score! If you can't make it to Brimfield, this is the next best thing." Wendell Garrett, editor-at-large of the magazine ANTIQUES, said: "This penetrating and dazzling account of today's collectors and the antiques trade is riveting."

Bob will be on site all week during May 2006 signing books at the BrimfieldExchange information building. Wyss will also be signing books on wednesday at noon at the New England Motel, Barnes and Noble in Millbury, MA friday 7pm and Wonderland Books in Putnam, CT saturday at 3pm. Other events are scheduled throughout the Northeast this summer. Log on to www.commonwealtheditions.com for more information about the book.
